DEDICATION

"My fellow Americans: ask not what your country can do for you—ask what you can do for your country. My fellow citizens of the world: ask not what America will do for you, but what together we can do for the freedom of man."

John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 35th President of the United States, died on November 22, 1963, in Dallas, Texas, struck down by an assassin's bullet. This dedicated man served his country well, not only as President, but as a Senator from Massachusetts and as a Lieutenant in the Navy during the Second World War. To this great man, champion of democracy, peace, freedom, and equality, we, the Class of 1964, dedicate our yearbook.

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

High above the busy city,
Far beyond all touch of ill,
Sits enthroned our Alma Mater,
Our dear Lady on the Hill.

Hope of youth and pride of manhood,
Standing steadfast, strong and sure,
Guide us onward, ever upward,
Heritage of rich and poor.

Chorus

Lift the chorus, send it swelling,
With a leal and loyal will,
And our bounty be the beauty of Our Lady on the Hill.

Peter's Portrait

by PETER

My name is Peter. You've probably seen me in a few pictures in the yearbook and are wondering who I am. I was told to write this autobiography so that you could get acquainted with me because I'm supposed to be "typical." I didn't want to write it because, well, I'm kind of modest and shy, and besides I've only written about six compositions in my life so it's going to be kind of hard. But anyway, here goes.

Let's see now. Oh yes, I was born. I was a cute fat baby like all of you. I ate a lot and slept a lot and spilled my baby food all over everything and everyone, including myself, and pounded on my high chair and got colds. My mother watched television a lot so she knew just what to do. She cleaned up the floor with that Blue Hurricane, she rubbed me all over with Wicks Wapo Wub when I had a cold, and she washed my clothes in her washer with the giant in it.

By the time I was in the fifth grade, I began to hear about Central High. You've got to have an ambition or you'll die so they say. So my ambition was to go to Central. But I lived pretty far away. One day, though, when I was in junior high school, I was walking down Halsey Street and a guy sold me a magic carpet for a buck fifty. It was just what I had always wanted. My mother wanted to clean it right away with the newest all purpose detergent, but I hid the carpet. I was afraid she might wash the magic right out of it.

One September morning, in 1960, I took my notebook, got on my carpet and off I went to Central High. I landed on the antenna and they got all upset down in the office because they didn't have any students who used magic carpets. They said that if I was going to come to Central I would have to take a bus and they gave me bus tickets. I tried the carpet again, though, the next day, and at school they sure put me on the carpet and it wasn't magic either. I got scolded so hard that all that year I slunk when I passed a certain door. I never used my carpet again.

Soon after that, a fellow in the locker room sold me an elevator pass for a dollar and thirty-seven cents. The first time I tried to use it there was a whole gang of teachers standing at the elevator laughing and talking. When they saw me with my pass, they laughed some more and pointed at me. When I tried to get on the elevator they threw me off and took my pass away.

That year, I got to know Chris Washington and Sidney Smith. They tried to set me right and smooth off my rough edges. We spent a lot of time with Mr. Stark trying. They took me to a football game and I saw a cheerleader for the first time. Boy, I bounced with joy! That was the end of my freshman year. Oh yes, I passed everything.

The next year I went out for football. One day at practice I rushed up to block a kick and I did—right on my jaw and on my nose. That winter, I took up basketball and joined the choristers. I was so good at basketball that the coach made me keep score. That wasn't bad, though, because I went to all the games free. Later, in the spring, I ran track. That was really good because I learned to run fast and that would help if I wanted to run away from somebody. So ended my sophomore year. Oh, I forgot, I went to Washington with some schoolmates. Very educational and all that jazz. We got out of a day at school.

My junior year, I figured I'd better start studying. I went on another trip, this time to Princeton; and I decided to go

PETER

PETE

*O brave new world,
That has such people in't!*

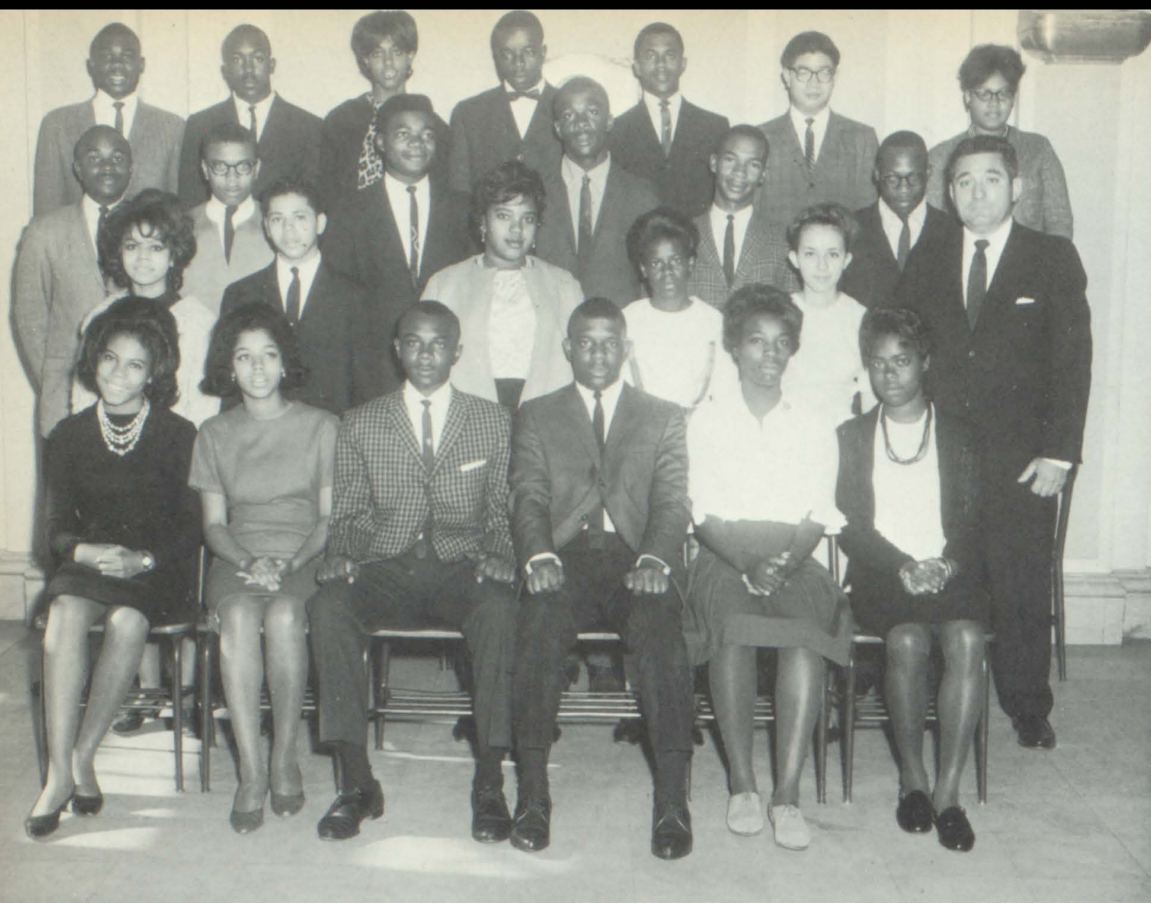

there—not just on a trip. Man, what a basketball season we had that year. We won the City League Championship, the Essex County Tournament, the Group IV, Section 2, and the Group IV North Jersey Championships, and finally, the New Jersey State Group IV crown at Atlantic City.

My senior year, Chris, Sidney and I were together all the time. You might say they made me what I am today. Just before Christmas vacation a bunch of us senior boys came in wearing those wide loud ties. Boy, that was double plus stuff. And later on, we all dressed up for National Bum Week. I could hardly wait for basketball season to see the team in action again. We were having another fine season and by the end of February the team had won the City League Championship and the Essex County Coaches Association Holiday Festival. Its winning streak had reached 41 games over a period of two years until mean old South Side ended it in the championship game of the Essex County Tournament. But the boys still had a chance of repeating as State Champs.

This is no time to leave off, but the publisher says that I have to hand this in right away. I'll see you at the prom and on the senior trip.

What I Will Miss After Graduation

by
FRANK POTUTO

Understandably there are certain individuals who believe graduation to be the Red Cross and the Salvation Army rolled into one. Feeling that the continual grind of school-day life is deferred for the present, they look forward to mornings of sleep, afternoons of leisure, and nights of entertainment. This dream, though, is dissipated upon their initiation into everyday life, and they soon find themselves looking back on the "good old days" when they went to school.

Even though they feel harshly toward school now, in the future there will doubtless be those instances when a meeting with an old acquaintance will bring back happy memories. Upon those occasions they will triumphantly proclaim that the present generation is a listless group and that in their day things were different. This is to be expected.

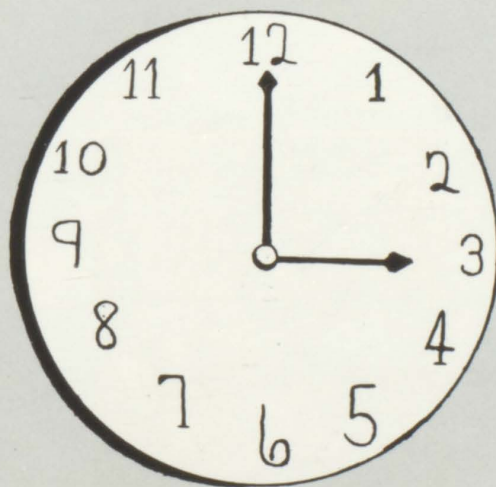

Obviously, there are people, activities, and surroundings which we shall all miss, the classrooms, the teachers, the friends.

Personally, though, I will miss much more than this. Time is the thing that I will look back on regretfully. Time is the most precious thing that we or any generation can have. There was the time I used so unwisely wandering about school corridors when I could have been studying for my not too distant future.

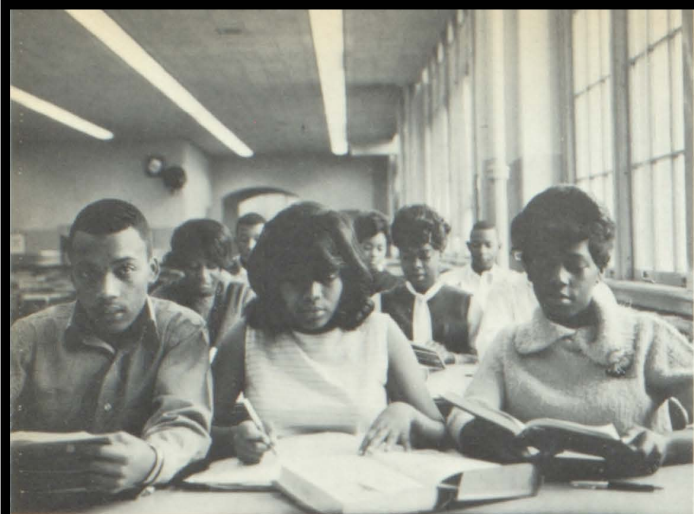

There was also the time in which I did do some constructive work, only to realize later that it was but a fraction of what could have been done.

Yes, time is something we all heed very little, but something which swiftly leaves us amid the chaos of each day.

I have suddenly realized that although I wasted a great deal of potentially useful time while in school, possibly now in my coming adult life I can use to full advantage every minute afforded me.

What I Will Miss Most

by
CAROLYN McNATT

After I graduate from Central High School, there will be a number of things that I will miss. First, there is the building itself. For the past four years, I have come to this building every morning with the feeling of coming to a second home to spend the day with some of my family. Walking through the halls of Central warms me all over, especially those on the first floor. There seems to be a connecting factor of friendliness, understanding, and willingness to help running from one student to the next.

I will miss the friendly buzz of the cafeteria. There, aside from eating, students are given an opportunity to relax, talk over morning incidents, and prepare for the remaining classes of the day.

I will also miss the study periods in the cafeteria. I guess it is because of the atmosphere created by so many people working together quietly.

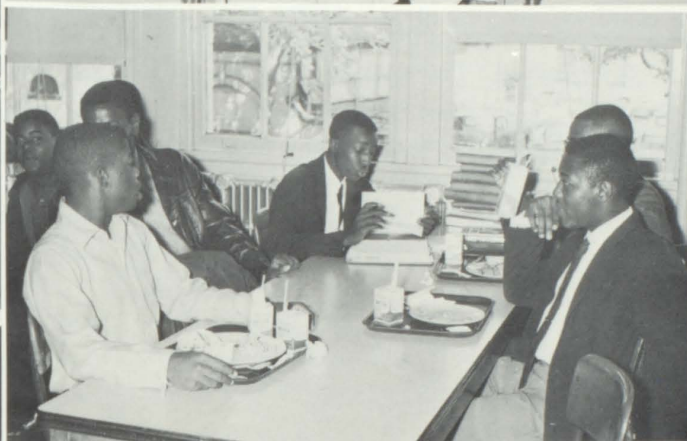

I will miss the wonderful assembly programs that we have in our auditorium. They are warming and inspirational and another one of the many things that make me proud to be a part of Central High.

I will miss cheerleading too, especially for our basketball team. Not just because the team is a good one, but because I didn't have to sneak home in my uniform after the game as I did during the football season.

These are the things that I will miss most after I leave Central High School, where I have received training to make me a better person and citizen.

What I Will Miss Most

by
HOWARD LAWSON

Being faced with graduation, a prospective alumnus may muse, "What will I miss most about Central?" There are many things that I will miss. I'll miss rushing through the halls between classes and the good times in the cafeteria. One of the little known pastimes that I'll miss will be sitting in the auditorium window early Wednesday morning, listening to Mr. Lundie play the organ. I'll miss the exhausting climb from the basement to the fifth floor after an air raid drill. I'll miss the happy times of the 1962-63 and 1963-64 basketball seasons as compared with the frustrating football seasons.

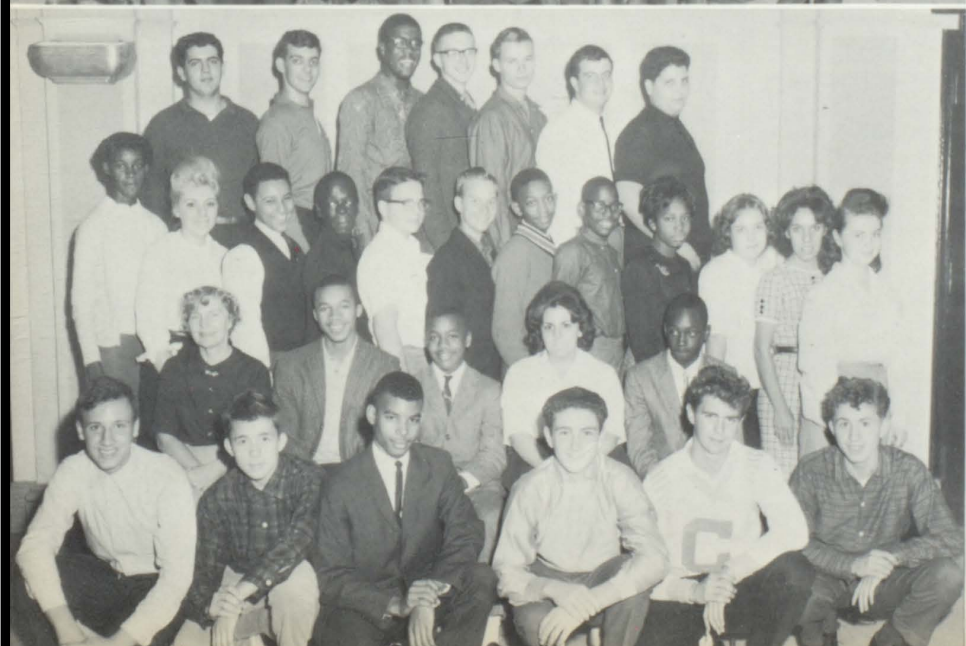

Two of the things that I'll really miss will be my homeroom and my homeroom teacher. I have been in the same homeroom with the same class and the same teacher during my four years at Central. I'll miss the many other teachers, too, that did their best to give me an education.

I will miss my many friends at Central. Chances are that I'll never see any of them again. I'll miss sitting around the flagpole in front of the school, laughing and talking with them during lunchtime. I'll miss marching into the auditorium to the tune of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," as so many seniors have done before me and will continue to do after me. Speaking of the auditorium, I know that I'll always remember listening to the songs sung by the Girls' Glee Club and the Choristers. All of these things, bundled into one, will comprise the thing that I will miss most—Central High School itself—"Our Dear Lady on the Hill."

The preceding articles were written by students in Mr. Franzblau's College English Class. All the students in this group wrote compositions on the same topic. The first was chosen because of its originality. The other two were selected because they were well organized and seemed to express most vividly the feelings of most of the graduates.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Class of June, 1964, being of sound (?) mind and body, hereby declare and ordain this to be our Last Will and Testament, having witnesses to the same.

We leave to Mr. Haeseler a megaphone; to Mr. Katz a class that will turn in its experiments on time.

To Mr. Lombardi, we bequeath a new gym; to Mr. Brown we give a line that will "get up off its — — — and charge!"

To Miss Adubato we leave an entire college bound senior class; to Mr. Feldman we leave a senior class that will turn in its ad money.

We bequeath to Mr. Young a beret, sunglasses, and a director's chair.

To Mr. Schlosser we leave elementary calculus and . . . counting; to Mr. Geller a class that will understand his mathematical concepts.

We give to Mr. Schectman a Gillette World Series Special; to Mr. Hollander we bequeath a suit without chalk dust on it.

To the cafeteria we leave a new cook book; to Scotty his Italian accent.

To Mr. DeLisi we bequeath a new gag writer; to Mr. Franzblau we give a student who means it when he apologizes.

We leave to Mr. Mooney (or was he Steve Allen?) an editorial staff that will meet its deadlines.

We give to Mr. Grimaldi a band with harmony; to Mr. Lundi we leave his swingin' organ.

To Mr. Senerchia we give a copy of the current best seller How to Be a Successful Polyglot; to Miss Rybkiewicz we leave a date with Mr. Senerchia.

We bequeath to Mr. Small a starting berth on the cross country team; to Mr. Cuozzo we give a subscription to the New York Daily News.

We leave to Mr. Cornwell a bottle of pep pills and a Boston accent; to Mr. Mosselle we leave the art of friendship.

To Mrs. Litch, Miss Rybkiewicz, Mr. Feldman, Mr. Ram, and Mr. Stark we give our sincere thanks and gratitude.

To the Class of '65 we leave a pleasant senior year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the Seal of the Class of June, 1964 to be affixed. Done this graduation day, June sixteenth, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-four.

MR. ROBERT D. BROWN

This past season our football team suffered numerous injuries to key players after opening the season with a victory over Vailsburg. A strong offensive unit plus a good defensive eleven enabled the Blue Devils to remain in contention in most contests. As was the story all year, a variety of bad breaks allowed the opposition to pull out four close games in the City League. With underclassmen gaining valuable game experience, next year is bright with hope.

Senior squad members were Robert Allen, Donato Battista, Larry Bevelt, Charles Ferguson, Charlie Griffin, Jesse Hall, Mike Honore, Richard Ervin, John Matthews, Robert Peak, Robert Pepe, Matthew Perry, Tommy Rudolph, Eric Stech, James Tharrington, and Louis Trusdwell.

This year Mr. Jim Martin coached our soccer team for the first time. Our defense was much better than it was last year and enabled the Blue Devils to remain in contention in every game. Many of the players were sophomores and juniors, promising better seasons in the future.

Senior players were: Charlie Branch, Frank Potuto, Hector Ortiz, Bob Hayes, Fred Pittman, Marvin Thomas and Ronnie O'Neil.

Cross Country

Mr. Joseph J. Williams
Coach

The cross country team made a very good showing this year. During the season, most of the schools became acquainted with the prowess of the Central team. Vailsburg, West Side, Barringer and East Side all fell before our might. The only schools to defeat the Blue Devils were East Orange, Weequahic and South Side.

In the city meet, the cross country team took third place which was a lower position than Coach Joe Williams had expected. This year, there were only two seniors on the squad, Reggie Marshall and Kenny Blount. There were several good sophomores and juniors who will be back next year. Mr. Williams expects much from these boys in the years to come.

The Central basketball team, coached by Mr. Matt Lombardi, was the best team in the state for the second year in a row. In addition to winning twenty-two consecutive games, the Blue Devils chalked up five championships (the Essex County Coaches Association's Holiday Festival, the City League championship, the North Jersey Group IV Section 2 crown, the North Jersey Group IV title, and the New Jersey State Group IV championship) and finished with a 26-1 slate. The team's only loss, which was in the E.C.T. championship game, ended its two year forty-one game winning streak.

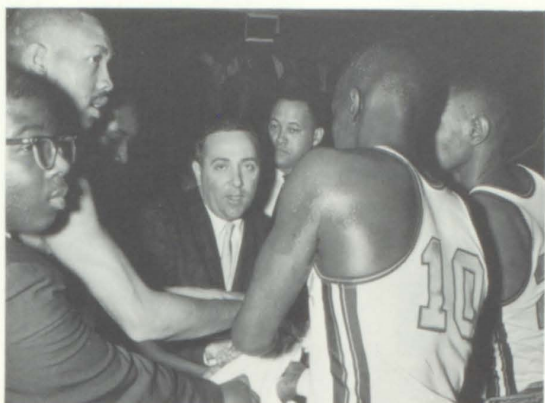

The Blue Devils opened their campaign with three City League victories before the Christmas vacation. After two one point victories in the Holiday Festival, the team proceeded to demolish the City League, finishing 12-0. It was seeded first in the E.C.T. but the team fell into a slump and lost the championship. However, like true champions, the Blue Devils bounced back to win their last four games and their second straight state title. Central became the first Newark school to win two consecutive state championships and the first in Newark to win as many as three.

Leading the team were co-captains Drayton Bembry and Willie Jennings. Bembry's ace playmaking and Jennings' accurate shooting made them first team selections on the All-City, All-Essex County, and All-State teams, and on the New York Daily News' Essex-Union County All-Star team. Joining them on the All-City team was junior sensation George Reynolds. Rounding out the starting team were senior Robert Lester, who played his first year of high school basketball, and junior defense specialist Don Parks. Other senior members were two-year veterans Phil Ford and Dennis Chavis and newcomer Charlie Griffin.

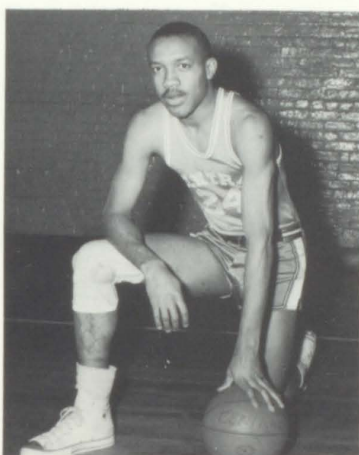

Coach Lombardi was named the New York Daily News' All-Star Coach and was voted Coach of the Year by the Newark Star-Ledger.

Swimming

Mr. Joseph J. Williams

Coach Williams had an enthusiastic group of swimmers splashing about in the Morris Ave. pool this year. The boys practiced during the season when most people hibernate and forget that there is such a thing as swimming. Hector Flores and John Matthews were able co-captains of an able team which represented Central loyally and well. The high point of the season was the win over South Side, Central's arch-enemy.

The outstanding performers other than Flores and Matthews were Phil Cathey, Wiley Hawkins, Leroy Miller and Elliot Simmons.

Indoor Track

Mr. Robert Brown
Coach

J. Kimbrough, R. Marshall, M. Thomas, K. Blount.

The Indoor Track Team participated in only three city meets this year. It took first place in two of the meets, and a second in the other. The first win was over Weequahic and Vailsburg, the second was over Barringer and West Side. The team lost only to South Side, while it beat Weequahic in the same meet.

In the state meet, our 1000 yard relay team took fifth place. Two of our outstanding milers, William Frazier and Kent Blount, came in first in their heats, but lost in the finals.

Outstanding senior members were Larry Bevett, Kent Blount, Robert Allen, Reggie Marshall and James Tharrington.

Central's baseball team, ably coached by Mr. Hilly H. Wisot, has made a good start by defeating Weequahic 6-2. Led by the co-captains, Richard Glenn and Rafael Rivera, both pitchers, and by the 1963 All-City left fielder, Phil Ford, the Blue Devils look forward to a successful season—if it would stop raining! There are many veteran players. Among these are Charlie Griffin, utility infielder; Richard Ervin, second baseman; John Matthews, pitcher and Harold McDonald.

The Outdoor Track Team, led by the captain of field events, Louis Trusdwell, and the captain of running events, Theodore Underwood, has got off to a "running" start. Ably coached by Mr. Robert D. Brown, the Blue Devils have already defeated Vailsburg, East Side and West Side. One team placed fourth in the Spiked Shoe Meet sponsored by Seton Hall.

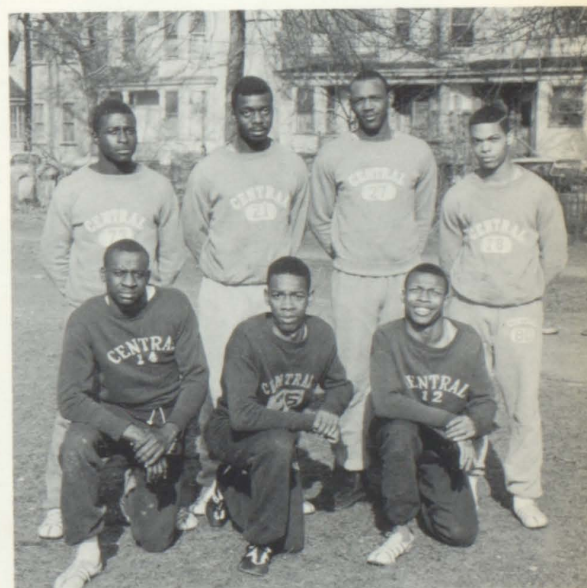

Doubtless they will go on to win many other events if the sun will shine on them too.

Mr. Martin shows how.
